

OKLAHOMA GETS TRACK EVENTS

Southwestern Athletic Association Holds Meeting to Foster Athletics.

Dallas, Tex., Dec. 8.—Measures to foster athletics in the smaller colleges were acted upon favorably by the Southwestern Athletic Association in annual session here yesterday. After disapproving of "seceding" for athletic material by representatives of larger schools, the association voted permission for schools having a male enrollment of less than 400 persons to play first year students on athletic teams. This rule is expected to prove of advantage to University of Arkansas and Southwestern University, of Georgetown, Tex., but will not affect the other schools of the association.

A motion was adopted that student members of the national guard now on the furlough should be given credit for the fall term if they are discharged and reenter college during the winter term.

The southwestern track meet will be held at Norman, Okla., on May 11, 1937, with University of Oklahoma as guest.

John C. Futrell, president of the University of Arkansas was elected president of the association.

CHICAGO CLUB GETS BIG SHOOT

Interstate Association For Encouragement of Trap-Shooting Has Meet.

New York, Dec. 8.—At the 128th annual meeting of the Interstate Association for the Encouragement of Trap-Shooting held here yesterday, the grand American handball tournament for 1937 was awarded to the South Shore Country Club, of Chicago.

The western tournament will be held under the auspices of the St. Joseph Gun Club, St. Joseph, Mo. The Roanoke Gun Club, Roanoke, Va., was chosen to take charge of the southern tournament. Hartford, Conn., will be the scene of the eastern tournament, and the Pacific coast handball will be shot over the traps of the San Jose Cal. gun club. The dates for all three events will be arranged early next year.

T. F. Doorman, of Wilmington, Del., was re-elected president and T. H. Kelly, of New York, vice president. E. F. Shuman, of Pittsburgh, Pa., secretary and Elmer E. Shuman, Pittsburgh, manager and treasurer, also were re-elected.

DODGERS TO MEET RED SOX IN SPRING

Boston, Mass., Dec. 8.—The world champion Boston Americans and the Brooklyn team, champions of the National League, probably will play a series of exhibition games in the spring. Harry Frazee, the new president of the Boston club, said last night that president Ebbetts, of the Brooklyn club, had already made arrangements to transfer the Brooklyn training camp from Daytona, Fla., to Hot Springs, Ark., where the Red Sox will prepare. The team has the approval of president Johnson, of the American league, according to Mr. Frazee.

President Frazee said that a strong effort would be made to induce William C. Carrigan to return as manager of the Red Sox for at least another year.

BAN IS LIFTED ON EXHIBITIONS

Salt Lake City, Utah, Dec. 8.—The most important subject discussed in the annual Coast League meeting yesterday was the player limit. The number of players remain the same, but four of the 15 can now be on the roster. The limit was not taken up.

For the 1937 season the ban against exhibition games had been lifted. The magnates also voted to put a stop to Coast League players participating in games outside the league during the season.

The season will open April 3 and will close October 23.

OTTO WALLACE IS LOSER TO GALLANT

Denver, Colo., Dec. 8.—Otto Wallace, of Milwaukee, was awarded a decision on a foul in the eighth round of a scheduled 35 round bout with Gilbert Gallant, of Boston, here last night. The fight was a technicality, as Gallant was knocked out by a referee's decision in the first round. 33 Men Are Picked for Herald's All-Star Team

The many victories of the "Pathfinder" Miller of Pennsylvania in the game with Cornell put up the greatest game of the season.

Higgins of Penn. States completed the list. Duffy injuries, he failed to quite live up to his reputation of the last two years, but he was still such a star that he couldn't be left off the line-up.

Cornell of Yale, Cornell of Tennessee, Cornell of Ohio State, Cornell of the Navy, Cornell of Harvard, Cornell of Dartmouth, Cornell of Vanderbilt, Cornell of Georgetown, Cornell of Brown, Cornell of Swarthmore, Cornell of Princeton, and Cornell of Cornell were other stars on the flanks.

Now comes the position on the team. The requirements are so exacting, but because there were no outstanding stars like Barrett or Fritchard, Scherer, Barrett or Fritchard, Cornell was very good. He was Cornell's mainstay all season, and started even when his team met defeat as in the Harvard game.

He was not so effective, probably due to the fierce charge of the Quaker line. He won't play in the game, but he was a fine punter and a fine field goal kicker.

Anderson is fast. He is quite the equal of the Cornell star, in fact, he finished the season in so much better fashion than the Cornell star that he appears to have the advantage when the whole season's work is considered. His strong point is forward passing, although he is a pretty good runner.

Duffy is a star. He is a star in the best player in the south. He is a star in the best player in the south. He is a star in the best player in the south.

This trip of backfield men combine speed, line plunging and open field running ability, with the ability to take the ball or handle the oval in aerial plays.

There were few high caliber quarterbacks in the west or west this year. In western football the best individual work done by men who played the quarterback position was noticeable in Macomber, of Illinois, and Long, of Minnesota.

Macomber, of Illinois, was the star that stood in Minnesota's way to a clean record, and as an all-around player he is considered the superior to the other quarterbacks in the conference.
